Celebrating 29 Memorable Years

Dear Readers,

The Conservation DistList, a long running listserv that has been the backbone of conservator communications since 1987, will be experiencing a brief disruption in service the first few weeks in August as long-term moderator Walter Henry retires from his role. He will continue to manage the CoOL archive. FAIC would like to thank Walter Henry for his 29 years of incredible work, growing this popular service to reach more than 12,414 subscribers today!

In honor of Walter's 29 years of service, we ask you to contribute just $29 to help support the ConsDistList. The Conservation DistList costs about $30,000 annually to operate, and relies on contributions to keep it going. If just Walter Henry (right) accepts an award for 1,000 folks made this small contribution - only 8% of list subscribers - we could support the ConsDistList for the ENTIRE year. Please help us reach this goal!

*AIC honorary membership in 2014.
